

Richmond's Newest College & Seminary

*"A University of the Highest Learning...
Keeping the Romance of God's Word in;
the Suspense and Expense Out"*

Offering degrees in theological and religious education in 1/3 the time and at 1/10 the cost. Associates in Religious Studies, Bachelors in Religious Studies, Masters of Divinity; Doctorates (in honoris causa, divinitatis, et al.), Religious Study, Ministry and Theology.

It does not take 2 years and $25,000 to get a high quality Master's degree in religion and theology, because we conduct a "Ministry, not a Business."

* The Export Seminary Program does not require classroom settings. Most students are accelerated by having transfer credits into the school, providing that course grades are not below C on transfer. Under exemptions of the State Council of Higher Education of Virginia, the school can only offer degrees in the furtherance of religious or theological education, but will accept secular subject credits on transfer provided that they are from accredited secular universities and colleges.
